Club Banquet

Nearly 50 people enjoyed the heck out of the 2010 Sky Knights banquet. The Sandy Grange cooked and served an outstanding meal of either prime rib or baked chicken with salad, veggies, dinner roll, and apple pie with ice cream that was to die for.

Glen Thornton was awarded the 2009 Bob Balch Sportsmanship award for his services to the club as Chief Trainer and all around RC airplane guru.

Jack Hoffman regaled us with tales of bush flying in Alaska and western Canada. His anecdotes included grizzly bears, sawed off shotguns, carburetor ice, and recuing pilots lost in the clouds. He also recounted some of his experiences in dealing with the idiosyncrasies and foibles of Canadian and US customs regulations as encountered by flyers.
