Club Jackets

At the April E-Board meeting, the conversation migrated around to the consideration that a different club jacket might be more popular with club members. Your editor contacted his son, who had coordinated buying jackets for his RC car club in Billings. Pictures of their jacket are on page 4. They were bought from a small company in Billings for about $80, including all the computer embroidered logos, and names. There appear to be 10 or 15 companies in our area that do this work.

This will be brought up for discussion Monday at the club meeting. Have your ideas ready.
