AMA Charter No. 707

December 2009

Pearl Harbor Day

Because of it being 25 degrees with a 15 – 25 mph wind blowing at a 45 degree angle to the runway, the '09 Pearl Harbor event was a little different. After a conference with the six pilots willing to fly their airplanes, contest director Dale McDonald declared the gathering to be a fun fly.

Once again, the most popular part of the occasion by far was the concession stand. Jackie, Loretta, and Laura of the Dusters auxiliary did their always-well done job of providing the crowd with hot drinks, chilli, corn bread, and a warm place to get out of the wind. See pictures on page 2.

There were times when you had a hard time wiggling into the concession tent. The bench flying was somewhat subdued due to everybody clutching hot drinks in their icy hands.
