Club Banquet January 21st

This year the annual Banquet will again be at North's Grand Buffet on N.E. Halsey St. in Portland. Jack Lenhart will be the guest speaker; he owns the airstrip in Hubbard that we used to hold the Evergreen Scale Rally at. Socializing begins at 6:30 P.M., and dinner should start between 7:00 and 7:30.

December Meeting Highlights

The thirty one animated bodies in attendance included guests: Bud Rhodes; and John Bluemer, who stated that he wants to build and fly a flying saucer.

Dale Talley read the minutes as his first official duty as the new secretary. There was no treasury report.

Department Reports: Dale McDonald and Chuck Adams reported on the Pearl Harbor Days contest. Gary Cosmer pledged to match the $190 collected at the contest, in the name of his company "TRM".

President: Chuck reminded that the date for the club banquet is January 21st.

New Business: Gary Norton was introduced as the new Vanguard Leader for the Evergreen Scale Rally. He talked about his ideas for getting more participation and attendance at the event.

The Main Event: Dick Hansen gave a how to demonstration "covering" spoked wheels for antique aircraft. Actually his technique is for covering over wheels that are molded plastic that is supposed to look like it is already covered.

Show and Tell: Corey Parsons presented his Great Planes 60 size Piper Cub. Jay Meyers showed that he scratch built out of coruplast, an aircraft based loosely on both a P47 and a T34. Joe Topper brought his new Proctor Micro Antic.

Raffle: Dick Hansen grabbed the O.S. 40 LA; Jay Meyers took the Micro Antic; Scott Pelkey picked out the Great Planes Accupoint incident meter; Corey Parsons has a new gallon of fuel; Aannnd Gary Cosmer took the Glue (C.A.).
